

THE BEAUTY COMEBACK - MANIFESTO & INTENTION

The B Beauty Comeback

COME BACK TRANSFORMED

The days are over where I was cocooning at home. Now is the time to come back! Celebrate life and put on my new skin. Like a butterfly, that after a phase of cocooning is now ready to break the shell out into the world, transformed and beautiful. I am glamorous, self confident. Everything seems possible again. I can join my friends and socialize again. I go shopping, sit in a café, dine with friends, visit museums, go to bars and events. I am coming back stronger.

Let's come back and uncover our beauty! The Beauty Comeback!
